

One Page Profile – All About(insert name)

Insert photo here Name.... Year	How Best to Support Me <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Read the Colour Blind Awareness Advice Sheets www.colourblindawareness.org/Teachers/ • Be careful not to embarrass me by drawing attention to my colour blindness in front of my peers • Audit classroom/resources to make sure I can access information in worksheets/textbooks, apps/websites, on posters • Provide drawing and writing equipment e.g. felt pens, pencil crayons, labelled with its colour name to enable me to work independently and without embarrassing myself in front of my classmates • Provide bibs and equipment for PE which I can distinguish between (blue and yellow or white are best) and see against the playing surface because I may not be able to tell House or other team colours apart or see equipment against grass/hall floor • Sit me in good natural light but not bright sunlight or under artificial light • Provide me with a colour ‘normal’ buddy for practical work when we are using colours e.g. science • Use secondary indicators when making teaching points in colour e.g. underlining, bold font; photocopy worksheets etc. into greyscale to find out if the information is accessible and if it is, provide me with the greyscale version • Allow me to use apps which can help me to identify colours and better distinguish between them e.g. Google Chrome extension, iOS accessibility settings; ensure that school colour systems have appropriate labels/symbols, e.g. marking systems, reward systems, book bands. • I may not see information in colour on the whiteboard especially if a projector is used.
My Favourite Things I lovee.g. building with Lego and KNex. I like e.g. playing tennis, swimming and cricket. I likee.g. riding my bike and playing outside.
My Strengths I am good ate.g. concentrating and interested in learning new things. I enjoy.... e.g. working with others and can take turns and share. I like toe.g. try my best.	